“Encompass Credit Union has worked with Whiting & Company for a little over 10 years now and we have been very satisfied with their service. They are consistently thorough in every project they complete. On numerous occasions, they have willingly provided their expertise regarding various issues we’ve encountered, issues that were outside the traditional scope of services they complete on a regular basis for us. I’ve already recommended them to many individuals.”

Don McElfresh, Vice President

“Whiting & Company provides the quality and professional work that you would expect from a leading CPA firm. Terry and his staff have a good understanding of credit union operations and complete their fieldwork with minimal disruption to our office.
